

Sacred Earth: The Way of Love in God's Creation

Saturday, April 18, 2020 9 a.m.-5 p.m.
St. Mark's Episcopal Church, San Marcos, TX

A day-long symposium focused on caring for and celebrating earth, our island home. The day will be filled with worship opportunities as well as panel discussions on the creative process/art, food, individual/corporate action and their intersection with creation.
